

18-20 JUNE 2025

Nonviolent Economy

What?

- Real-life examples of enterprises, initiatives, business models from India and Nova Scotia, pursuing principles and practices of nonviolent economy.
- Learn with New Dawn Enterprises, Medway Community Forest Coop, and Gabe Chisholm (6th generation farmer).
- Peer-reflections, group work, and FUN.

Why?

- Is it possible to imagine, create, and spread an economy that is nonviolent to people, environment and nature? To producers, consumers and communities? Policies, institutions that align planet and people beyond profit? Solve challenges of our times while growing economy?
- Emerging ways to frame nonviolent economy practices and principles.

Who?

- ◆ Social Entrepreneurs and Business Promoters
- ◆ Business Leaders & Policy Developers
- ◆ Academics & Students
- ◆ Activists & Changemakers
- ◆ A Curious Community Member
- ◆ (Not an Economist!)

Facilitators

Jill Car-Harris (India)
Anuj Jain | David Fletcher (Nova Scotia)
Reva Joshee (Alberta) | Annie Luk (Ontario)

Special Guests / Practitioners:

Erika Shea—CEO, New Dawn Group of Enterprises
Mary Jane Rodger—CEO, Medway Community Forest Cooperative
Gabe Chisholm—6th generation farmer in Antigonish

Where?

Fireloch Gathering Place

1442 Nova Scotia Trunk 7, North Lochaber, NS B2G 2L3

Registration: <https://www.iginpcanada.org/building-nonviolent-economy.html> | email: ignip.canada@gmail.com

Recommended Contribution: $750 | Includes Day Snacks and Lunch
(pay as much as you can)