

BUILDING NON- VIOLENT ECONOMY

Are you a changemaker, a social entrepreneur, a business leader, student, academic, activist or policy maker? We are excited to invite you to join us in Antigonish, Nova Scotia for a 3-day workshop on nonviolent economy. Our workshop offers an opportunity to journey together to rethink and re-envision an economy that is supportive of Gandhian principles of non-violence and redefines success beyond profit, to include sustainability, equity and community well-being.

The 3-day workshop will explore:

- ✓ Nonviolent Enterprises: What do they look like in practice?
- ✓ Principles & Practices: What makes an enterprise truly nonviolent?
- ✓ Case Studies: Learning from live examples in India & Nova Scotia
- ✓ Interactive and arts-based activities

FACILITATORS

David Fletcher works as an educator, action researcher and capacity building consultant specializing in community-driven development and transformative education. He has a PhD in community resilience.

Contact Us
IGINP.Canada@gmail.com

More Information
www.IGINPCanada.org

Anuj Jain is a dynamic educator and advocate of learning inquiry, specialized in inclusive economies (including, market systems, microfinance, and urban economies). He holds an MBA in finance and marketing.

Credit: Anuj Jain

Credit: R. Joshee

Credit: FireLoch

2025
18-20
JUNE

FIRELOCH GATHERING PLACE & RETREAT

ANTIGONISH
NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA